The work may involve use of an automated or manual account keeping system. Standard assignments are performed independently and involve application of well-defined accounting procedures and practices. Supervisory assistance is available, however, for unusual problems, and provided in the form of detailed instructions of all new or difficult assignments. The work is reviewed by immediate observation and checking completed work, by periodic or spot-checking, by cross checking, or by another step in the clerical process. Work is performed under direct supervision of a designated immediate supervisor.
